

Blessings

Dear Special One,

Oh, how your Father and I want to bless you – past, present and future. I am willing and able to bring healing to all the hurts of your past. Today, I can guide and empower you through the Holy Spirit to be the partaker of our abundance of grace as well as the expectant recipient of that special place in our Kingdom that we've prepared just for you.

I have told you of the blessing that are yours when you are poor in spirit, pure in heart and a peacemaker as well as a merciful, meek, caring one who stands for the truth.

When the world puts you down, I will lift you up. Remember, your rewards in heaven are incorruptible and will last forever. Expect and wait for our grace and glory. Moment by moment, you can experience the blessings of being a citizen of the Kingdom of love.

*Bless you, Jesus