

Overcomer

Dear Overcoming One,

I am so honored and blessed when you overcome temptation. Food deeds and great words are nothing to me as compared to your belief in me as your way, your truth and your life.

The opportunity and challenge to overcome was ever present for me while I lived on the earth. My love for the Father and my faith in His plan- its beginning, middle and end- kept me on the 'straight and narrow.'

They also saved me from the deceiving enticements and great wrath of my enemy.

I have no regrets.

Right now, you may have no idea just how great is the reward for enduring to the end.

Give- not up or in, but all you have in my name. Believe me when I tell you there is no greater or more lasting, desirable reward than the one being prepared for you by us.

Blessings,

Jesus
